

2014 Access to Justice Conference

MEETING THE CHALLENGES TO EQUAL JUSTICE FOR ALL

William S. Richardson School of Law, University of Hawaii
Friday, June 20, 2014

- 8:00 - 8:30 a.m. Continental breakfast; registration
- 8:30 - 9:15 Welcome
Dean Aviam Soifer and Robert LeClair, co-emcees
- Intermediate Court of Appeals Associate Judge
Hon. Daniel R. Foley, Chair, Hawaii Access to Justice Commission
(Overview of activities of the Commission)
- Hon. Mark E. Recktenwald, Chief Justice, Hawaii Supreme Court
(Overview of activities of the Judiciary)
- 9:15 - 10:15 “Rethinking Access to Justice”
James J. Sandman, President of Legal Services Corporation
- 10:15 - 10:30 Break
- 10:30 - 11:45 “Where, Oh Where Is the Money?”
Legislative panel
- 11:45 - 12:45 Light lunch
- 12:45 - 2:00 Afternoon concurrent workshops:
1. Maintaining the Momentum and Maximizing Legal Services for the Underserved
This session will examine the issues facing the Hawaii Consortium of Legal Services Providers and how to maximize legal services to the indigent population in Hawaii.
Panel: Michelle Acosta, Volunteer Legal Services Hawaii; Moses Haia, Native Hawaiian Legal Corporation; Jessica Stabile, Mediation Center of the Pacific; Nalani Fujimori Kaina, Legal Aid Society of Hawaii; Gavin Thornton, Hawaii Appleseed Center for Law and Economic Justice; Louis Erteschik, Disability Rights Center; James Pietsch, Elder Law Program; Nanci Kreidman, Domestic Violence Action Center; Daniel Gluck, American Civil Liberties Union
  2. Right to Counsel in Civil Cases -- Where Are We?
This session will discuss to what extent the basic human needs of shelter, sustenance, safety, health, and child custody are being addressed in the context of adversarial proceedings. Panel: Associate Justice Simeon R. Acoba, Jr. (ret.), Russ Awakuni, William D. Hoshijo, Mary Anne Magnier, Patricia McManaman, and John Tonaki

3. Giving Voice to the Underserved: Lobbying and Political Movements
This session will discuss various aspects of lobbying including the efforts of grassroots organizations. Panel: Rep. Karl Rhoads, Sonny Ganaden, Mihoko Ito, Gary Slovin

4. Mental Health Issues Concerning Low-Income Individuals
This session will examine the complex and often overlooked mental health problems confronting the underserved population. Panel: Associate Justice Michael Wilson, Rep. Della Au Belatti

5. Strengths/Limitations of Self-Help Centers; Challenges in Working with Unrepresented Litigants
This session will discuss the strengths and limitations of self-help centers and the challenges to both attorneys and the Judiciary in working with unrepresented litigants. Panel: Judge Ronald Ibarra, Judge Barbara Richardson, Jessi Hall

2:00 - 2:15 Break

2:15 - 3:30 Afternoon concurrent topics:

6. Current Topics in Domestic Violence
This session will examine the current domestic violence issues concerning the underserved individuals. Panel: Judge R. Mark Browning, Nanci Kreidman, M.A.
7. Mediation and Civil Applications of Restorative Justice for the Underserved
This session will discuss how mediation can be more effectively utilized to assist the underserved in civil cases, including restorative justice concepts. Panel: United States District Judge Leslie Kobayashi, James Hoenig, Diane Petropulos
8. Capacity Issues for the Elderly: Your Clients, Your Parents
This session will discuss the complex medical, psychological, personal, and legal issues dealing with an older person's decisional capacity. Panel: Dr. John Buzanoski, Dr. Ritabelle Fernandes, Professor James Pietsch
9. Using Technology to Enhance Access to Justice
This session will explore how technology can be used to expand or enhance efforts in providing equal access to the underserved. Panel: Ellen Politano, Emily Su-lan Reber Porter
10. Meeting Challenges to Effective Delivery of Unbundled Legal Services
This session will discuss the issues concerning the unbundling of legal services that would assist the underserved, including discussion of addressing existing barriers to greater use of unbundled legal services. Panel: Judge Joseph Cardoza, Judge Barbara Richardson, Derek Kobayashi, Eric Seitz

3:30 - 4:15 Plenary:
"Meeting the Challenges to Equal Justice"
Judge Daniel R. Foley, Chief Justice Mark E. Recktenwald, and James J. Sandman; Facilitator: Robert LeClair

- What is necessary to meet the challenges?
- How can the Commission meet these challenges?
- How can individuals assist?

4:15 "Hawaii Aloha"